Our learning and common places

The "Forum Physikum" and the "Mathe Cafe"

Is the library full? No free seminar rooms for studying? Looking for like-minded people, the FSR or just information?

We'll look no further, cause we got you covered! Whether just for learning, comfortable chatting with friends or when you want to know what goes on on campus, you can find all this here. 😊

Also our offices are there.

Forum Physikum

Physics building
2.28.0.085

Mathe Cafe

Maths building
2.09.K.05

The exact addresses are here...

In case there is no room there, there are also the communication rooms of every research group. They are usually open when there is no group in there, so you can also go and learn in there. The exact list for the physics institute is found here.

Old exams, exam protocols or theses

For a successful studying we have a collection of past exams as well as Bachelor and Master theses for you to inspect. To keep this collection up to date, please contribute to it by sending us your exams or theses to our Mail address.

To past exams...

We also have protocols of oral exams, that can be looked at in our office in room 2.28.0.84. Just come and ask us. :)

We wish you good luck for your studies!
